

ELFA Summer Course "CRITICAL TOPICS IN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW IN COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVE" Como, July 15-19, 2019

THE SUMMER COURSE

Director: Prof. Barbara Pozzo
Coordinator: Prof. Valentina Jacometti

The International Summer School "Critical Topics In Environmental Law In Comparative Perspective" has been recognized as ELFA Summer Course and is jointly presented by the University of Insubria School of Law, the University of Aix-Marseille, the University of Utrecht Centre of Water, Oceans and Sustainability Law and the Opole University.

This intensive, one-week program provides a unique opportunity law students and legal professionals to study environmental law by examining and comparing different environmental law policies and regulatory regimes.

Classes are taught in English.

THE LOCATION

Classes will be held at Dipartimento di diritto, economia e culture of Università dell'Insubria, Via S. Abbondio, 12, Como.

Como, Italy, is centrally located in the heart of Europe. The stunning city of Como provides the ideal location for intellectual reflection and discussion of environmental issues. The location, situated in proximity to Milan and Lugano, Switzerland, provides a sophisticated legal environment in which to study comparative environmental law.

CREDIT

Italian students passing the final exam will be awarded 5 CFU
